

FOR THE STARVING

Manitoo Has Rushed to the Rescue of Miners.

CONTRIBUTING $1500 FOR THE

Unemployed, and Their Families Will Be Generously Cared for if Manitoo's Example is Followed.

MICHIGAN, Mich., Dec. 18.—Michigan's contribution to the miners amounting to $100 each and $200 worth of clothing and provisions has just been sent. The latter people feel an especial duty in the matter, as they themselves were helped by citizens at the time of the great calamity. In this city there are comparatively few cases of destitution.

Michigan Postmen.

Lovis, Frankfort; James, Wells, West Bay City; Robert Archbold, Coopersville; Dr. F. Lehrsteter, K. P. Tullall and Benjamin Kline have been appointed members of the board of examining surgeons at Port Huron.

Needs a Game Warden.

GRANDIN, Mich., Dec. 18.—Grandin easily needs a game warden. The deep snow is covered with a hard crust which will support the weight of a dog, but the sharp hoofs of deer cut through. Local sportsmen do snowshoes and with a half dozen dogs go "hunting rabbits" and moose with excellent success. Venison is quite cheap as a result.

Judge Hart Honored.

MICHIGAN, Mich., Dec. 18.—Judge Hart, who will retire from this circuit January 1, after eighteen years' service, held his last judicial business at the court house in this city Saturday. The Isabella county bar presented him with an elegant oak-top desk, and placed a life-size crayon portrait of the judge on the wall in the court room.

Loss of the Whole Debt.

TEXAS, Mich., Dec. 18.—A wealthy Clarence farmer conspired to cheat the state out of the tax on a certain mortgagor temporarily, proposing to fix the thing up after the assessor had made his rounds. To his dismay, his debtor would not consent to renewing the document, and he lost the whole debt.

Foster Found.

LUDINGTON, Mich., Dec. 18.—Arthur Turgeon, son of Captain Turgeon of this city, was missed from home yesterday morning. In the afternoon his body was found floating in the ice, near the F. & P. M. dock. It is supposed he slipped and fell into the water.

Traverse City Mystery.

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich., Dec. 18.—Elias Price, a handsome dining-room girl, died mysteriously Saturday afternoon. It has been learned that she was in a delicate condition, and there is a strong belief that a criminal operation caused her death.

Lakeview Hotel Burned.

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., Dec. 17.—Early this morning the Lakeview hotel was completely destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of nearly $20,000. The property was insured for $20,000.

Fire Companies Organized.

PLYMOUTH, Mich., Dec. 17.—Since the completion of the water works, our citizens have organized three fire companies for the various divisions of the town.

Shot a Wolf.

ADRIAN, Mich., Dec. 18.—Farmers from Adrian township report that a wolf was shot there Sunday. It had killed over forty sheep recently.
